SENATOR HILL is making a run to get into the crowd.—Decatur Review.

Hold on! Not quite so fast. The crowd seems to be running to get under Senator Hill's umbrella.

The only thing which stands in the way of harmony between capital and labor are the American demagogues and agitators, who are the worst scabs that infest society.

SOME Senators are saying that they cannot submit to presidential dictation.
It is not presidential dictation now, but the dictation of the people, and it will be heard.—Decatur Review.

Senator Hill took the same position all through the senate debates on the tariff bill that the president has since taken. Why is it that we heard nothing about the people's dictation then,
and why is it that the Democratic press abused Hill for refusing to submit to caucus dictation in the matter?

THERE was a time, after Cleveland wrote his anti-free-silver letter, when the Democratic press and Democratic leaders said that ends Cleveland. And yet he became the nominee of that party for president. There was a time, less than one week ago, when the same people could not find words in their vocabulary to convey their disgust of Hill;
and now they are all on the march toward Senator Hill. Such inconsistencies could not be practiced in any party that is following well defined principles, and no party without established principles can run the government successfully.

The Democratic Situation.

How little deference to principle enters into the action of the average Democratic newspaper and Democratic leader
may be seen in their present exhibition
based on the situation in Congress touching the tariff bill. Two weeks ago no man was more thoroughly abused by that class of Democratic authority than Senator Hill. He was abused because he refused to fall in with the other Democrats in the Senate in their scheme to tax certain raw materials such as iron and coal and finally refused to vote for the bill when it was on its passage in the Senate.

Since the president has written his letter, in which he openly charges that the bill, as it passed the senate, is not a Democratic measure and does not carry out the promises made by the party to the people, and asks the house to refuse to concur in the senate amendments which destroy the theory of free raw materials, these doughfaces have changed their minds about Hill. Hill, however, has not changed. He made a speech in the senate since the president's letter to Wilson has been made public, that was the same kind of a speech he made against the bill in the senate before it passed, and yet we now find these Democratic papers, that had no use for Hill a few weeks ago, saying that he has gained much of his lost prestige. Take the Decatur Review as an illustrious example of these transitions. It says:

Senator Hill has regained much in the estimation of Democrats by his frank and positive declarations in support of the president's position as regards tariff legislation. * * He has placed himself on the right side and if he helps the party to win in this contest
he will add immensely to his own honor and prosperity.

Nothing could be rotteness than such slush as this. Senator Hill has not changed his position in a single particular. He treats the tariff just as he has treated it all along. The difference is in such papers as the Review, which are supposed to voice the sentiment of the party. When Hill was fighting Gorman, Brice and company these papers were fighting Hill and saying that the bill is proposed by the senate was a tariff in the right direction, and characterized Hill as a traitor. But now that it has been discovered that the president con-curs in Hill's views, these papers assume that Hill has changed his position and has regained much of his lost prestige.
When as a matter of fact the change in the situation is that Grover Cleveland has stuck his fist on the other cheek of the doughfaces. Remember, Hill voted against the bill as it passed the senate, and before that voted scores of times to put raw materials on the free list. Now the president advises the house to do just as Hill did, and once these papers brag out that Hill is gaining prestige. In face of such facts as these, can anyone wonder, longer,

why the Democratic party is a failure.
Neither its leaders or its newspapers have any principles, and the whole party,
bag and baggage, is a political mob, without a single defined principle. It is unfit to be in power in this country because it is unfit to legislate upon any vital question connected with our public affairs and ought to be wiped off the earth as a party organization.

MOODY'S CONFERENCES.

Active Preparations in Progress for the Coming Season.

D. L. Moody's summer conferences at Northfield, Mass., Dr. Addison P. Foster has said, "are a power in the land, and are making a great and permanent impression on the religious life of the whole nation." The coming bible conference, the last of the three for this season, from August 1 to 13, will be of unusual interest. It will occupy the new Auditorium just being completed, where 3,000 hearers can be accommodated, and where the various services can be enjoyed with comfort. The lists of speakers and subjects have never been surpassed at Northfield. For the first time a program has been announced. One day will be devoted to the consideration of each of the following important subjects, in their order: "The Bible," "Atonement," "Justification," "Repentance," "Faith," "The New Birth," "The Kingdom," "The Holy Spirit," "The Second Coming," "Prayer," "Separation," "Resurrection."

A Century Run.

On Sunday a party of Bloomington young men, members of the Bloomington bicycle club, completed a trip of 100 miles under the L. A. W. rules. The wheelmen were L. H. Hamilton, Frank Harvey, J. H. Hughes, Ed. Connor, Mark Jones and G. L. Lang, who left Bloomington at 12:15 a. m. and reached Decatur at 5:10 o'clock. They put up at the Hotel Brunswick and took a snooze until 8 o'clock, when they got breakfast. In company with A. S. Robinson and other local wheelmen the visitors took a run over the principal paved streets of Decatur, visited various points of interest and left for home in the afternoon. The distance from Bloomington to Decatur is 46 miles. The wheelmen say it was pretty tough riding, owing to the recent heavy rains.

Test of Love in a Court Room.

A divorce suit was decided at Lexington, Ky., Saturday by a method unprecedented in judicial history. Some time ago Mrs. Ella Chestnut, a young and handsome woman, instituted suit for divorce from her husband, Col. A. B. Chestnut. She also asked for the custody of her pretty 4-year-old daughter. When Chestnut appeared in the court room he claimed that the child did not wish to return to its mother. Judge Parker decided on a novel experiment. Judge Parker had the child stationed in the center of the court room and then the mother and father were placed on either side. At a signal the child was told to go to the one she loved best. Both mother and father stretched out their arms toward the child and called to her in pleading terms. The child hesitated a moment and then ran to her mother, who nearly fainted with joy. Chestnut left the court room. Judge Parker then issued an absolute divorce to Mrs. Chestnut and ordered that the child delivered to its mother, subject to the orders of the Court.

A WOMAN'S TREACHERY

Driven a Faithful Lover to Self-Destruction—Found Hanging in His Shop.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 23.—J. P. Haas was found hanging to the ceiling in his shop on North Noble street yesterday afternoon. It was the frightful odor about the premises that led to the search. Haas had not been seen about the place since Thursday. The suicide was a victim of a faithless woman to whom he was betrothed in his native city of Luxembourg, Germany. He had come to this country promising to send her money for the passage just as soon as he could earn it, and sent her $50 last May bidding her to come on at once.

He watched the trains for several weeks, but heard nothing and saw nothing of his sweetheart. He wrote again, but not until last week did he hear from the girl. Then it was through her husband in Paris who wrote that he had married her and that her former lover must cease all attentions to her. This drove Haas to despondency and to self-inflicted death.

OVER ONE HUNDRED DROWNED.

A Ship Run Down at Sea and Her Passengers and Crew Abandoned to Their Fate.

ODessa, July 23.—It is certain that 140 persons went down with the Italian steamer Columbia, which collided with the Russian steamer Vladimir in the Black sea a few days ago. All the evidence badly incriminates the Russian steamer, who deliberately abandoned the Columbia and her crew and passengers to their fate, although the vessel floated an hour and a quarter after the collision.

The Italian colony here will subscribe a fund for the prosecution of the Vladimir's officers. The local newspapers malign the officers of the company all night long. Baron di Morchetti, Italian ambassador to Russia, has strongly protested to the government against the falsehoods published here on the subject.

SERVED THEM RIGHT.

Riotous Commonwealers Driven Out of Town by the Militia.

FREMONT, O., July 23.—Failure to receive anything like liberal donations resulted in a formal demand to the city by "Count" Bylowsky's army of commonwealers which came here Friday, for provisions yesterday. The "count" threatened in case of refusal to turn his army loose in the streets. When his demand was ignored, the commonwealers, after destroying much property at the fair grounds, marched in a body to the city hall and again demanded food. The mayor sounded a riot alarm and the Rockland guards, Co. D, responded, carrying loaded arms. Marching to the scene of the trouble, the militia dispersed the "wealers" and finally drove them out of town.

The Sale of the Thousand Islands. OTTAWA, Ont., July 23.—The sale of a portion of the Thousand Islands in the river St. Lawrence which was decided on in council is progressing well. There are 600 or 700 islands between Gananoque and Brockville, and so far over 300 have been sold for about $40,000. None were sold below the reserve price, while many brought handsome premiums. Contrary to reports which have been circulated from time to time the islands have not been secured by American speculators, but a majority of them have been sold to Canadians.

STATE POLITICS.

Republican Gathering at Springfield This Week—Mason and Cullom.

State Committee Meeting To-Morrow—Candidates for Office.

This week Springfield will be thronged with Republicans from all parts of the state to attend the state convention which will be held on Wednesday, July 26th. Many delegates and statesmen are now at Springfield preparing for the actual business of the principal day.

The state central committee will meet on Tuesday and complete arrangements for the organizing of the convention, and temporary chairman and secretaries will be chosen.

A strong effort will be made to have the convention complete its work in one day. The business to be transacted is not large and there will be no such complications as attend a gubernatorial convention with a full state ticket to be nominated.

Great interest is manifested in the new state central committee. Owing to the fact that the convention is so large a body and because there will attend it a very considerable number of delegates who are new in state conventions, it is impossible to forecast the composition of the new committee. Among other beliefs that are interesting is the one that John R. Tanner will be a member.

Ex-Congressman William E. Mason, who is Senator Cullom's only opponent for senator, is reported to have said lately that all he desired in the convention was a roll call on the subject of the convention's nomination or endorsement of a U. S. senatorial candidate. Because of the fact that there are so many new delegates it would be impossible to state what the result of such a proceeding would be. Mr. Mason's friends claim that it would be in his favor. Others who seem to be equally well informed affirm that the effect would be exactly the opposite of this.

Among the names mentioned as possible chairman of the convention besides ex-Governor Fifer, who probably will be chosen, are ex-Governor Oglesby, Congressman Cannon, Congressman Henderson, Congressman Wheeler, Congressman Hill, Colonel George R. Davis, Alderman Madden, of Chicago; ex-Senator Charles E. Fuller, of Belvidere, and Colonel Isaac Clements, of Carbondale. WILL NOT FOLLOW.

The Republicans do not seem to be inclined to follow the lead of the Democrats in making a nomination for United States senator in the state convention. According to reports gathered by correspondents in 100 of the 102 counties in the state, the Republican sentiment is strongly opposed to such action. The 100 counties heard from represent 1,320 of the 1,335 delegates entitled to seats in the convention. Of this number 684 delegates are instructed as to a candidate or are instructed to vote against a nomination. Four hundred and sixteen are either instructed or have preferences for Cullom. Under similar conditions William E. Mason has 200 delegates. Many of the delegates who have expressed preferences for Cullom or Mason are instructed to vote against a nomination.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

—One of the largest Sanskrit classes in America is that in Boston university. It began the year with twelve members, and is closing with eleven.

—It is claimed that a college graduate's chance of obtaining a fair degree of eminence are as 250 to 1 as compared with the men who have not been to college.

—A report of M. Laskowski, professor at the university of Geneva, on women medical students, is highly encouraging. During the past seventeen years 175 women have been admitted to the faculty. Fifty were Poles, of whom only four are known to have completed their studies.

—Prof. Thomas Day Seymour, of Yale college, who is a graduate of Western Reserve of the class of 1870, and was professor of Greek in his alma mater for ten years, is to deliver the memorial address upon ex-President Cutler of Western Reserve at the forthcoming commencement.

—One of the Unitarian churches in Boston is lighted by a ceiling of sub-divided glass. When this was put in Mr. Arthur Gilman is said to have remarked that it was the first time he had ever heard of trying to raise Christians under glass, adding that he now knew what was meant by "early Christians."

—It is stated that the Salvation Army is considering the project of securing a large body of land in Mexico, upon which to settle some of the denizens of the slums of New York and other cities who are willing to reform, and thus carry out in this country the plan of Gen. Booth in London—Christian Statesman.

—The prevailing religion of Siam and Laos is Buddhism. The Presbyterians, north, have in the Laos country 10 ordained, 5 medical, 6 lady missionaries, and 1 ordained native, 8 churches and 1,600 communicants; and in the Siam mission 7 ordained, 2 medical, 4 lady missionaries, and 1 native evangelist, 7 churches and 330 communicants.

—Among the results of Christianity in Japan there is none more striking in its influence than the orphan asylum at Okayama. There is a romance in it. Its founder was Fuji Ishii, now thirty years of age, an ex-policeman, and now a practicing physician. The asylum was started with a little girl who was rescued from being buried alive in her dead mother's coffin.

—A bill has been introduced into congress by Gen. Black, of Illinois, based on suggestions from Gen. Lew Wallace and Librarian Spofford, providing for a college of twenty-five persons "distinguished in literature, science, art and invention," modeled somewhat after the Institute of France, called "the Forty Immortals." A committee of the senate and house will name the first five members of the college, and these five are to elect twenty other persons. The body will be a continuous one, and is to be provided with a meeting room in the new congressional library building, with proper service, and have the use of all the publications of the library. The college is to make reports from time to time to congress upon language and literature. Great Britain, Germany and other countries have similar national bodies.

THE TARIFF CRISIS.

The Fate of the Bill May be Decided This Week

BY A VOTE ON THE CONFERENCE REPORT

Now Pending in the Senate—Each House Seemingly Determined to Insist Upon Its Own Bill—An Agreement Not Probable.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—All interest in congress the coming week centers about the senate, where the fate of the tariff bill may be decided by the vote to be taken on the conference report which is now before that body for action. By to-morrow night a history of importance to the whole country will probably have been made, and events, fraught with grave results to the democratic party, will have transpired.

There was nothing in the shape of a caucus yesterday, although senators charged with responsibility in connection with the tariff bill called upon their colleagues and endeavored to get some light upon the situation. A prominent democratic leader, chairman of one of the most important senate committees, and who does not belong to the so-called conservatives, told a United Press reporter last night that unless something altogether unexpected happened before the senate met to-day—something to which no one looked forward—all hope of tariff legislation at this session of congress will be doomed to disappointment. This view was expressed only after a consultation he had last evening with some of the members of the senate finance committee.

There will be no caucus to discuss the situation and it is known that thus far the dissatisfied elements of the party—the men who insisted that the compromise bill should be passed or none—have kept clear of their colleagues and have declined to talk the situation over. They stand as firmly as ever where they have always stood and declare that there is nothing to discuss; it must be the senate bill or nothing. The managers of the bill on the part of the senate realize this, and, as one of them said last night: "What can we do? There is nothing to compromise; we went to the extreme of compromise when the bill was in committee and there is nothing further that we can yield except immaterial matters. The house asks us to do something that is impossible, and the president, who knew beforehand what we were compelled to do, has turned and placed the responsibility upon the shoulders of the senate."

When the conference report comes before the senate again to-day it will be with four motions bearing upon its disposal. Of these the first made were the two of Mr. Hill to instruct the conferees to recede from the senate amendment placing coal and iron on the dutiable list. Then comes Mr. Vilas' motion that the senate recede from the one-eighth of a cent differential duty which it had placed on refined sugar, and fourth, Mr. Gray's motion that the senate insist upon its amendments and agree to the request of the house for a further conference.

After all, however, it is none of these motions that the managers of the bill most fear. According to democratic information, before Mr. Vilas gets a chance to put his motion striking at refined sugar, or if he does make it, before the motion can be voted upon, one of higher parliamentary standing will be made. It will be a motion that the conference report be indefinitely postponed. This motion the managers of the bill were warned last night might be made early in the day, and they have some reason to apprehend that it may secure five democratic votes. Of course the republicans would vote solidly for it. A motion of this kind was about to be made Friday when Mr. Cokerrell hurriedly moved to adjourn over until Monday in the hope that a cessation of the debate for a day or two might improve the situation.

Should the motion to indefinitely postpone the conference report prevail, the tariff bill will be defeated so far as the senate is concerned, for it would be a refusal on the part of the senate to agree to a further conference.

Mr. Gorman, Mr. Mills and Mr. Brice are expected to speak to-day. Mr. Gorman will reply to some of the statements made by the president in his letter, and it is said will make claim that Mr. Cleveland knew before the public did what concessions the senate committee had to make. Mr. Gorman will also, it is said, quote from Mr. Carlisle's interview about the time the Jones amendments were passed, and use this as going to show that the administration knew of the difficulties in the pathway of the senate and gave the committee its support in its arduous task.

THE PATTERSON BILL.

Its Passage Expected to Assist in Creating a Demand For Foreign Securities.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The point is reached in the house when there is no new measure of such importance as to command the assignment of a day for its consideration. The committee on rules will meet to-day to decide what committees shall be recognized during the week for presentation of business decided upon by them.

It has finally been decided by the managers of the house that the Patterson bill to amend the interstate commerce law so as to permit the railroad companies under regulations to be established by the interstate commerce commission, to pool their earnings shall go over to the next session for action. The decision was reached after consultation with the managers of the measure, although there was a great pressure brought to bear in favor of immediate consideration.

It is believed by many friends of the bill that its passage, together with the recent demonstration of the ability and determination of the government to protect and preserve the free and untrammelled movement of commerce between the states, would make a foreign demand for securities going far toward terminating the present period of business depression.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

(First Session.)

WASHINGTON, July 21.—For the second time, by a vote of more than two-thirds of the members present, the house to-day passed a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United States senators by the people. That having been disposed of, the rest of the session was occupied in discussing the bill directing the restoration, as fast as vacancies occur, of railway postal clerks who were dismissed from the service between March 15, and May 1, 1890.

Without conclusive action on the bill, the house, at 2:30 o'clock, adjourned.

Reilly's Bill to Adjust Railroad Indebtedness to the Government.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Representative Reilly, of Pennsylvania, made a report to the house yesterday on the bill to adjust the indebtedness of the Union and Central Pacific railways to the government. The report is very voluminous, dealing in a clear and comprehensive manner with the history of Pacific railroad legislation, and explaining the purpose of the bill reported from the Pacific railroad committee.

Doesn't Believe the Report. WASHINGTON, July 22.—Mr. Gorman, the Japanese minister, places no credence in the report from Shanghai via London that war has been declared between China and Japan. He says that Shanghai is the birthplace of many groundless rumors sent out for speculation purposes, and he thinks that he would have heard of a declaration of hostilities if it had been made.

A HEAVY SUIT

Against Russell Sage and the Estate of Jay Gould.

NEW YORK, July 21.—The Kansas Pacific stockholders' committee, Elias E. Dutcher, chairman, has begun suit in the United States circuit court of New York, in the name of John Quincy Adams, against Russell Sage and the estate of Jay Gould to recover $11,000,000, being the proceeds of securities taken from the trust. Under the deed of trust executed to Russell Sage and Jay Gould about $3,000,000 of the capital stock of the Denver Pacific Railway Co. were deposited with the trustees as collateral security for the payment of the Kansas Pacific consolidated bonds. These securities have been taken out of the trust and the proceeds applied by the trustees to their individual benefit. They claim to have obtained title to them through a suit which they instituted in the name of the Kansas Pacific Railway Co. (which was controlled by them) against themselves.

Dr. Johnson, of Columbus, gave an eloquent address on popular amusements, followed by Rev. Dr. Warburton, of Baltimore, who preached the closing sermon.

A Fatal Wreck. HANDESKY, O., July 23.—The Columbus andocking passenger train, due here at 9:10 a. m., collided with a switch engine a short distance outside this city yesterday morning. John Van Horn, of Columbus, engineer, was crushed to death and both engines were badly wrecked. None of the passengers were injured. Van Horn's wife and child were on the train at the time of the accident.

Fell from a Car and Fatally Crushed. St. Louis, Mo., July 23.—Charles F. Dummer, a hotel keeper of Jacksonville, Ill., fell from a Chicago & Alton train at the entrance of the tunnel in this city last evening and was fatally injured. Dummer was a member of a large excursion party returning to Springfield, Ill., and was standing on the platform of the car when he fell. Both his legs were crushed. He died at the city hospital at 9 p. m.

Declining the Strike On. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 23.—The local American Railway union officials yesterday declared the strike off.

A BLOODY BATTLE.

A Minister and Two Members of His Congregation Slain

AT A MEETING TO SETTLE A DISPUTE.

A Slanderous Report Said to Have Been Started by the Divine Cause—A War of Extermination Probable.

SHREVEPORT, La., July 22.—News has been received here of a tragedy at Ivory, a settlement in Arkansas just beyond the Louisiana line, in which a preacher, Rev. J. R. Platt, and two members of his congregation were slain and several others seriously wounded. The parties had met in a secluded place to settle a dispute concerning the authorship of a slanderous report that was in circulation, and the fight was the result.

A rumor got abroad in the community affecting the character of a young lady. It was alleged that Rev. Platt started the story, but he in turn accused a member of his congregation named Perdue. The men were about to come together in battle, but friends intervened and it was decided that the principals with their friends should meet down the river and decide the matter without trouble. There were present Platt, Felix Goulet, Dan Perdue, two men named Tidale. Two men named Delee and J. G. Stuart, father-in-law of Rev. Platt.

At some time had been devoted to argument all the parties reached for their weapons. There were Winchester, revolvers and shotguns. Platt, the only man unarmed, jumped into the river, where he was killed with a Winchester ball. Stuart, his relative, was shot in the back and leg and was kicked into insensibility. One of the Tidales was shot in the abdomen. Others of the two factions received injuries.

The congregation of Platt's church is divided over the whole affair, and an effort may be made to drive Perdue out of the community, in which case a war of extermination will be entered upon on both sides.

ZIMMERMAN WON.

His Wonderful Performance in the Contest for the Baden Prize.

PARIS, July 23.—The contest for the Baden prize was the principal event in the bicycle tournament at the Velodrome de la Seine. Zimmerman led throughout the first heat of 2,000 meters, and won it with an effort. He won the final heat of 1,000 meters with equal ease and carried off the prize. Harry Wheeler was second; Medinger, third.

In the one-mile handicap Zimmerman rode from the scratch, Harry Wheeler, Barden, Jacquelin and others had thirty meters start; Banker, Farman and others forty meters start. Crooks and others fifty meters start. The rest of the contestants were strung out from sixty to 100 meters in advance. It was a big field, but Zimmerman overtook all in the first lap, riding at a pace which brought round after round of applause and cheers from the spectators.

The inferior riders were in a bunch, and Zimmerman found it impossible to make his way through the throng in the next lap, but eventually he got away and spun around the track amid demonstrations of wild enthusiasm on every side. He finished five lengths ahead of Jacquelin, who was second. Morver, who had ninety meters start, was sixth. Zimmerman's performance was one of the finest pieces of riding ever seen in this city.

THE TROUBLE IN COREA.

Demand the Withdrawal of Japanese Troops Before Considering Reforms.

LONDON, July 23.—A dispatch received last evening from Yokohama says: "It is stated that Corea demands the withdrawal of Japanese troops from the peninsula before considering the reforms proposed by Japan. The Japanese government is much surprised by this demand. Corea has never before been so firm, and her present attitude is regarded as proof that she has been influenced by China to defy openly Japan's wishes. Negotiations have been in progress for several days between Tokio and Peking, but their tendency is not generally known."

Rumors of War Discredited. LONDON, July 23.—The Chinese legation here has heard nothing from Peking since Saturday morning. Everybody there discredits the rumor that war has been declared as well as the report that 10,000 Chinese soldiers have started for Corea.

The officials at the Japanese legation also discredit the war rumors of the last few days and express much surprise that war has been regarded here as imminent. The British foreign office denies all knowledge of war or final preparations for war between Japan and China.

Specie Exports. NEW YORK, July 23.—The exports of specie from the port of New York for the week ended yesterday were $3,906,089, of which $3,304,583 was gold and $601,507 silver. Of these amounts $3,300,000 gold and $4,869 silver went to Europe, and $4,583 gold and $14,557 silver to South America. For the corresponding week of 1893 the exports were $1,129,500.

United States Troops for Aid. WICHITA, Kan., July 23.—A company of United States troops from Leavenworth passed through here to-night on their way to Enid, Okla. The people down there have yesterday and to-day been very positive in their assertions that if it takes dynamite to do it, their city ordinance, passed to compel the Rock Island to stop its trains, shall be enforced and serious trouble is expected at any time.

SATURDAY until a late hour at night the magic trunk and petrified woman show on Water street given under the management of Billy Fudge and Jake Bauer did a flourishing business and only one man got in on his face and he was one of the head officials of the city. The "profession" was not recognized, and consequently the fly showmen got a big roll of the "long green" which served to cover expenses and leave a neat balance. The Sparks people had a part in the exhibition. There was a disagreement at the close of business and the Sparks were frozen out.

SATURDAY evening it took four officers to arrest two frail women on Franklin street. They were Miss Cole and Tommie Hubbard, whose offense was that they were caught in saloons in violation of the saloon regulations, but they had to go behind the bars in the calaboose from which they were released later on putting up a cash bond. The women wanted to know why the men who frequented the saloons were not molested.

THE Sunday school convention at the Antioch Baptist church Sunday afternoon was a good one. J. G. Next Sunday at 4 p. m. a convention will be held at Westminster Chapel.

A. R. U. MEN GIVE BAIL.

Five of the Directors Arrested on the Charge of General Conspiracy.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Another installment of the men indicted by the grand jury for participation in the railroad strike gave bail to-day. During the afternoon five directors of the A. R. U., William E. Burns, J. J. Doyle, Martin Elliott, Roy M. Godwin and James Hogan, were brought in. Burns was bailed out first by Mike McDonald and the others released on bail of $3,000 each on the two charges against them. The indictment charges a conspiracy to obstruct the mails and interstate commerce and interference with the rights of shippers. John F. McVean, another A. R. U. official was also indicted, but has not yet been arrested. President Debs this afternoon received a check for $1,000 from Thomas Tucker, of Baltimore to aid his defense.

An Old Crook.

J. A. McCauley, who was arrested a week ago last Saturday on the charge of stealing fourteen head of Hereford steers from T. J. Scroggins of Harris town, is an old offender. He has already served a three years' sentence in the Joliet penitentiary for forgery, and from the present outlook he may serve a longer sentence this time. He forged his father-in-law's name to a note for $600, got the money and was caught in the Indian Territory. At that time he was sent to Joliet for three years. McCauley would have been brought to Decatur and tried for stealing the Scroggins cattle, but the warrant for his arrest was sworn out at Springfield. He will be tried there.

The Apple Case Again.

The case of N. E. Hollis & Co., Chicago, vs. W. P. Hunter, Decatur, is again on trial by jury in the county court. This case was tried once and W. P. Hunter lost it. He got a new trial, and now the whole story about the purchase of a lot of apples will have to be gone over again. Attorneys Harris and Buckingham appear for the plaintiffs, and Attorney Walker for the defendant.

Bath Room Accident.

This morning Mrs. William Bowers, while in the bath room at her home on North Franklin street fainted and falling fell against the edge of the bath tub, and dislocated one of her ribs on the left side. Dr. W. J. Chenoweth attended the lady who will be forced to remain quiet for several days. It is a painful but not dangerous injury.

A Beauty.

THE DECATUR CHURCHES.

Services at Several Places of Worship on Sunday.

The temperature on Sunday was all that could be desired, and religious services generally were well attended.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist church was completely filled at both the morning and evening services yesterday to hear Rev. Will King, of Meadville, Pa., preach. Rev. King is a young man of commanding presence, and a brilliant and forceful speaker. His two sermons yesterday were listened to with the greatest interest, and created a very favorable impression of his power as a pulpit orator. The subject of his morning address was "Preparation for Leading Others," and his text was Matthew iv, 19. To be a Christian, he said, was to obey the call of the text, "Follow me," to believe and to obey Christ. Belief is the keynote of all Christian living and all Christian service. To be a Christian also involves the leaving of something behind. Whatever stands between an individual and absolute fidelity to Christ must be given up. Not this nor that evil habit, but everything that is out of harmony with Christ's law must be abandoned. Christ said: "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." This means that we must study Christ's method of dealing with men, that we must learn to teach what he taught. We must study and use the Bible. He closed the sermon with a suggestive application of the figure, "fisher of men," and offered as a very useful suggestion, the old fisherman's rule, "keep yourself out of sight." The text for the evening sermon was the Gadarene incident, found in Mark, chapter 5 and 6. After a very vivid description of the scene of the incident, he took up some of the lessons suggested by it. In this incident is recorded first of all a great journey. Jesus passed over from the land of the Jews, with the temples and priests to the land of the Gadarenes, the Gentiles. It was a great journey. He passed over to the other side. This is what is needed to-day in politics, in business, in society and in religion. The politician must go over to the other side and learn that party tradition is not an inflexible standard of political wisdom. The wage earner must put himself in the place of his employer, and the employer must get into sympathetic relation with his employees. Sectarianism must learn to see that all the truth is not included in one favored denomination. Again, here is a record of a great cure. A demon-possessed man, whose affliction defied any help from himself or his friends, or the physicians, or the officers of the law, is cured by Jesus Christ, with one word, when he said unto the demons, "Go!" It is also the history of a great crime. When the Gadarenes saw concerning the swine they came and besought him to depart out of their coasts. They valued the swine more than the man. This is what people are doing to-day in licensing saloons and gambling halls, merely for the revenue to be obtained from them. Fourthly, we have here a great commission. The gospel of Christ cannot be preached by lips, nor expressed by words. It must do its own preaching through the lives and characters of Christian men and women. Christ sent this cured man home to show forth to his people what the Lord had done for him. Here is a commission for every Christian. Let him show forth in his daily living, in his intercourse with men, what the Lord has done for him, and then may he become a preacher of Christ more eloquent than any words of tongue or pen. The preacher closed his eloquent effort with a beautiful and stirring description of the once demon-possessed but now free man's return home to his father and mother and friends.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

At St. John's Episcopal church there were regular services in the morning and vesper services in the evening. In the morning services were conducted by Rev. Frank N. Atkin, rector of St. James church of Macon Mo., who preached the sermon. His sermon was an able one, and the speaker was well liked by the congregation. The church is without a pastor at present and is hearing a number of men with the view of extending a call to someone.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. D. F. Howe preached at the First M. E. church in the morning to a large congregation. His remarks were based upon the narrative of Christ and the woman at the well of Samaria. He made this the basis of a sermon to show that everything that is beneficial to man in this life and in the life to come must have God in it. The well had been dug and walled by Jacob, but the wall, perfect as it may have been, was worth nothing without the water which God gave. The good things of God were given to men through the hand of human agencies. The water in the well of Samaria became beneficent through the handiwork of Jacob. The great work of making men better, of reaching them, was not by seeking the multitudes, but by touching the unit. There is always something common to all men. Christ was a Jew, the woman was a Samaritan. In this sense they were wide apart, but they both came to get water. This formed a bridge for the chasm between Christ and the woman, and he reached her and preached to her by this community of interest and she went and told her people what she had heard, and thus Christ reached the multitude. The greatest work Christ did was through the individual—the unit. So it has ever been in the history of the church. In this evening the regular union services were held in the First M. E. church. The sermon, which was an able one, was preached by Rev. A. W. Hawkins, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

At Rest in Greenwood.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Arthur E. Spencer was held Sunday evening, July 22, from the residence of Justice Hamner on West North street, and was largely attended by neighbors and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Miller, pastor of the First Congregational church, who delivered the sermon. The singing was by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gher, D. L. Bunn and Miss Ebert. The selections at the house were "One Solemn Thought" and "Thy Will Be Done." At the grave in Greenwood "Asleep in Jesus" was rendered. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The pallbearers were L. L. Race, Frank Curtis, Will Race, Sherman McClelland, L. E. Syman and Frank Evans.

On the Street.

Yesterday being a comparatively cool day and the roads being in a splendid condition, the streets presented a lively appearance all day, and many rigs were out. Many of those driving started directly for the country, the dusty highways of the past few weeks keeping them from the drives heretofore, but yesterday there was no dust and the atmosphere was clear and bright, and the air was bracing, and it was just the day for a fine drive into the country. It was a day that made the livierman's heart rejoice, and one that afforded great relief to many a man who, having been penned up in the dust blown city for so long, was able again to get a whiff of the pure ozone.

C. E. Rally at Oakridge.

There was a Christian Endeavor rally Sunday at the U. B. church at Oakridge. About 30 Decatur Endeavorers went out in buggies to attend the meeting, some of whom had part in the exercises. Elmer Towl had charge of the meeting and Milton Johnson, Jr., led the singing. The devotional exercises were conducted by T. C. McIntire. This was followed by a short talk by Rev. J. A. F. King on the needs of the C. E. work, and a discussion upon the duties and organization of the various committees. The rally resulted in the formation of a C. E. society at Oakridge, which will meet two weeks from Sunday for its final organization.

Closes of the Car Meeting.

The Free Methodist camp-meeting, which has been in progress at Oakland park during the past two weeks, closed Sunday night with a great crowd of people present. During the day several services were held and the usual interest was manifested in all of the exercises. The principal sermons were delivered by Rev. Mr. Jones, who is a powerful pulpit orator, and by his good sense and eloquence made a very favorable impression upon the congregations. The order was maintained throughout the meeting, and the results are entirely satisfactory to the Decatur pastor, Rev. Wiley Johnson, who had the services in charge.

Funeral This Afternoon.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Atterbury, of Chicago, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of C. M. Atterbury, on West William street. Rev. W. E. Feenballeon, of the First Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergyman. The remains were placed in the J. B. Bullard vault at Greenwood cemetery. The infant died Saturday, aged one year, while the parents were in this city on a visit, and the remains will finally be taken to Chicago for burial. Mr. H. Atterbury arrived from Litchfield this morning to attend the services.

New City Jail.

A deal has been made between the city and county representatives by which the city is to have a new city prison in the basement of the annex to the court house. It will be in the east end, and every convenience will be provided for ventilation and healthfulness. In the arrangement the county gets more space on the second floor of the annex, and the rooms there will be fitted up for the use of the grand jury.
